

REV. CHAS. CAVERNO, D. D.

Charles Caverno was born Aug. 13, 1822, in Stratford, New Hampshire. His boyhood was spent in the town of his birth. He later attended the Gilmonston Academy, Gilmonston, New Hampshire. At eighteen he entered Dartmouth College, graduating with the class of 1844. How much his college affiliations meant to him, and how loyal an alumnus he was of his alma mater all knew who knew him. For a time he read law in the office of his uncle, and in 1854 graduated from the Albany College of Law. He entered upon the practice of his profession in Milwaukee, Wis. where he labored from 1856-63 during which time he served one term in the Wisconsin State Legislature, in the session of 1859-61. During these years of legal practice he felt himself drawn more and more toward the Christian ministry.

In 1865 he entered the Chicago Theological Seminary, where he took a one year course, being ordained in 1866. After a brief period of supply work he became pastor of the Congregational church at Lake Mills, Wis., which he served until 1871. He then became pastor of the church at Amboy, Ill. from 1871 to 1873. His longest pastorate was here in Lombard where he served for fifteen years, till 1888. Then followed ten years of devoted and fruitful service in Boulder, Colorado, from which pastorate he retired in 1898 to spend the evening of his life here in Lombard.

Dr. Caverno married Abbie H. Smith in 1873. She died in 1886. In 1888 he married Anna C., daughter of the late Newell Watson.

He is survived by his wife and son Xenophon Caverno of Kewanee, Ill., and daughters Julia H. Caverno, professor of Greek at Smith College and Dorothea R. Caverno, teacher in Burnham School, North Hampton, Mass.

Even as a boy in school, he won and retained the respect of all with whom he came in contact; as is evidenced by the following extracts taken from an article written by a school friend and published in "The Alliance" in its issue of Oct. 4, 1884.

"Early in the spring of 1849 I met in social relation, for the first time, the subject of this sketch (Charles Caverno). It was in the study room at Gilmonston, New Hampshire; we were attending school at Gilmonston Academy, where he had nearly finished his preparatory studies for entering Dartmouth College. He was a senior and I was a freshman; never the less I was kindly received, and from that date to the present time our friendship has been cordial and unbroken.  In all of his academical studies, with a class of ten, his standing as a scholar was equal to the best, although among the youngest, if not the youngest, of his class. He exhibited at this early age great powers of application. Nothing was allowed to keep him from a thorough preparation of his lessons before recitation.  His kindness in assisting me in my studies and introducing me into the society of the seniors I have reasons to remember with reasons of gratitude.  I worship at the shrine of his knowledge. He was naturally sedate, but always congenial; was ambitious to become a finished scholar, and by close application

Accidents at Peter Hoy's Farm

Accidents at Mr. Hoy's Farm seem to be never ending. During the past week Mr. Hoy and two of his men met with severe accidents resulting in the death of one of the men. Mr. Hoy while bedding his stables was kicked by a cow so that the lines of the pitch fork entered his limb above the knee. He has since been confined to the house, but at present is slowly gaining.

One of his men fell from a wagon load of corn which ran over him. He was taken to the Cook Co. hospital but died two days after the accident.

Another man was injured by a horse at the same place and taken to hospital, where his injuries proved quite serious, but he is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Morse of Oak Park, who have been spending the summer at the home of Mr. Chapin have purchased a home on Stewart Ave. where they are now located.

Among those who spent Sunday at the O. J. Roth home were Mr. Robb Smith, LaSalle county Treasurer, his wife and daughter of Ottawa, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Will Graves, Mr. Forrest Graves, Miss Lucia Graves of Seneca, and Mr. Elmer Gregory of Seneca, and Miss Florence Gregory of Wheaton, all being Mr. Roth's first, second or third cousins.

to his studies and manly deportment he won the respect of his teachers as well as his school mates. He was the soul of honor, never stopping to do anything that was degrading in his character. When graduating from the academy he received the highest honors of his class, being selected to deliver the salutatory address.

At the funeral services which were held last Sunday afternoon at the late residence, Rev. H. H. Walker of the Chicago Theological Seminary spoke, in brief, as follows:

"His was a life abundant. Every moment was filled with interest and activity. In a sermon of his preached many years ago I find these words quoted from Shopenhauer: 'Most people will find if they will look back when their life is at an end, that they have lived their life long and interim, and they will be surprised to find that something they allowed to pass unnoticed and unheeded was just their life, the very thing in the expectation of which they lived.' And Dr. Caverno adds, 'We have a right to look forward to the time to come but that anticipation must not be allowed to obscure what is. The margin that we have between the past and future is really very narrow, but that makes all the more important that we live the margin.  The ages are made up of the year, the day, the hour, the minute, the second. The ages can bring us nothing unless we lead the seconds to their full carrying capacity as past they said.' It is a remarkable fact that within a few hours of his passing into unconsciousness he was planning a sermon on John 16:7-13. Continued on page four.

Congregational Church

On Friday evening, November 10th, and all day Sunday, November 12th, the ladies of the church celebrated the 50th anniversary of the founding of the church in Lombard of which the 1st Church is the present representative, will be observed. While the full program has not been completely detailed, there probably will be a home-conference on Friday evening and the religious services on Sunday sounding a dominant note on the increasing and extending of the power and efficiency of our present organization. Further details will be announced later.

At 7:30 as heretofore. This service was taken at the prayer meeting on last Wednesday evening. As many of our members are unable to be present at the former hour, especially those who have small children.

On Sunday, October 15th, the Rally Day of our Sunday School will take place. We expect a rousing good attendance and no doubt the Parish House will be taxed to its capacity. A special program has been prepared, good, live, wide-awake singing will prevail. We will have some special feature of interest, and every person attending will be presented with an American Flag pin which is to be worn as a tribute to the country of which we are so proud. BE A TRUE AMERICAN. Come to the Parish House on Oct. 15th, and let us all join in the SALUTE TO THE FLAG.

The Mother's Club

The Mothers' Club held its regular meeting in the Parish House on Wednesday, Oct. 4. A short business session was held, after which Mrs. E. J. Andrews, chairman of the civic betterment committee of the Lombard Woman's Club, addressed the ladies present. She, in an earnest and interesting manner, told of the many good plans in the minds of her committee members, for making Lombard a cleaner and more attractive town. She spoke of their success in bettering the condition of the Aurora-Elgin station, and also told of the efforts being made to create an interest among the townspeople, in keeping Lombard's streets free from waste papers.

The women showed great interest in her remarks, and it was voted by the Club to co-operate with the civic betterment committee in every way possible.

Mrs. T. E. Meyers then sang, in a most pleasing manner, "In the Time of Roses" by Louise Reichhart.

Mrs. Ryan then rendered a piano solo, entitled "Madrillina," by Paul Wascha.

Mrs. McVeigh read a paper on Household Economics, which was followed by a lively discussion of the problems of present-day economizing, and many helpful suggestions were offered.

The next regular meeting of the Club will be held on Oct. 18.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB

The Lombard Woman's Club will hold its first meeting of this season Monday, October Ninth, 2 P. M., at the Parish House. This meeting promises to be of unusual interest as the speaker of the day will be Mrs. Frederick A. Dow, Illinois State Secretary of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Her message will touch on her experience at the Biennial Convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs held at New York last May. All members are urged to be present and give Mrs. Dow a hearty welcome. Guest tickets may be procured from the Club Treasurer, Mrs. E. E. Hatch, upon payment of 25 cents.

The members of the Program Committee, with Mrs. Danforth J. Abrams as Chairman, are offering to the Club a most excellent program for this season, and their efforts deserve the hearty support of every member.

Special attention is called to the two Study Classes which were organized the latter part of our previous Club Year, the Art and Literature Class, under the Chairmanship of Mrs. W. A. Reed, and the Nature Study Class, with Mrs. Geo. Beach as Chairman. Each of these Classes is offering a splendid program of its own for this year. All Club members are privileged to enjoy the Class work in either or both of these departments without any additional dues, and, indeed, they are both well worth while.

The Art and Literature Class of The Lombard Woman's Club met last Monday afternoon. The beautiful day and the large number present combined to make the gathering especially interesting and entertaining.

After a short prayer by the organized choir, the ladies of the new American Literature Club met in James Whitcomb's parlors.

Mrs. Peter Peterson, on Ladies' Night, presented a study full of little personal touches, intermingled with many of the more familiar poems, in which fun and pathos are so beautifully welded—verses most skillfully interpreted by the reader to the aided delight of the audience.

Mrs. Charles Lane, the President of the Club, favored the class with a most scholarly treatment of the Boston Singer—Robert Frost—reading at periods of her essay from his much discussed book—North of Boston, and bringing before her auditors in a very vivid way, the barren life of the New England country town.

Miss Castleman, who acted as Secretary pro tem, told the class of that already well known poet of Indiana—the friend and companion of Riley—William Herchell, a man very lovable and human in his life and expression and who wrote, as did his fellow scribe, of humane things and common people. Miss Castleman's ready wit and sparkling vivacity added greatly to the pleasure and worth of her presentation.

The class then adjourned to meet on October the sixteenth at the home of Mrs. Charles Green.

A Correction

Before going to press we wish to acknowledge our error in regard to our publication of the article concerning the marriage of Mr. Fred Marquardt, our worthy alderman, to the actress, Clara Joel.

Our information was taken from the Chicago papers, which also had the facts wrong. However we feel safe in making the announcement this week, that the bride to be is Miss Neddemeyer.

A Home Wedding

There was a quiet home wedding at the residence of Mrs. Williams on Wednesday A. M., October 4th, when her daughter Rose was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Chapin, by the Rev. Mr. Heyworth of the Congregational church. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin of Chicago, parents of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hoban of Chicago, were out of town guests. Mrs. Hoban is a sister of the bride.

Starting Facts About War

In the second of the series of war sermons, Rev. J. R. Heyworth of the Cong'l Church, rose fully to the occasion, and delivered a powerful and convincing address on the subject of "Starting Facts About War."

The world's Christian people was mentioned as a factor. The sermon made a profound impression on the large congregation.

On Sunday evening, Oct. 8th, Rev. Heyworth's subject will be: IS MAN APE OR ANGEL?

No sermon in the series promises more interest than this analysis of human development, and the corresponding reactions. Educative, interesting, Christian. It will pay to hear it!

Sunday evening service at 7:30. Special music furnished by Mr. Claude Manning and Mrs. Sydney Smith.

Services in charge of the Mother's Club.

The Tuesday

The Lombard Tuesday Club will resume its activities on Tuesday evening, October 10th.

The initial program will be of a musical and literary nature, and will be in charge of Mrs. Margaret V. Lenoir, who is known to many local residents as an artist in her lace. This program has been carefully prepared, and the excellent choice of musical and literary numbers by the talent represented, insure an evening of pronounced interest and entertainment.

The officers of the Club are hoping that a large number of the Tuesday members and their friends will be present to enjoy the opening program.

Below is appended the formal arrangement of Concert numbers:

- 1 Prelude C sharp Minor Rachmaninoff
- 2 Her First Effort Selected
- 3 A From the Land of the Sky Blue Water Cadman
- 4 The Moon Drops Cadman
- Low Nevin
- 5 A May in Tuscany Arlecchino
- 6 Nocturno Barchetta
- 7 Idylle, op. 28, No. 4. Mac Dowell
- 8 Act I, Scene II, Merchant of Venice
- 9 Sleeping Potion Scene. Rameo and Juliet
- 6 Aria "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice" from Samson et Dalila Saint-Saens
- 7 Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 6 Liszt

THE DESTROYING ANGEL

By LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

SYNOPSIS.

Young Hugh Whitaker's doctors tell him he has less than a few months to live. His sweetheart bids him...

One about to die surely must feel more at ease about his future if he is conscious of having really done some good in the world.

"I didn't have any money to speak of, but I had some jewelry—my mother's—and he was to take that and pawn it for money to get married with."

"There mustn't be any more talk, or every thought, of anything like that. I understand too well to ask the impossible of you. But there is one way out—a perfectly right way—if you're willing and brave enough to take a chance—a long chance."

"You're a good man," she said weakly. He knew himself too well to be able to reply. "You mustn't worry about me, now. You've made things easy for me, I can take care of myself, and I shan't forget whose name I bear."
