

HEAVY VOTE CAST AS EXCITING ELECTION STRUGGLE CLOSES

Three Full Tickets Seek Control of Board of Trustees—Women Take Interest—New Polling Place in Busy Place—Expect Largest Vote Ever

Quite the largest and most exciting village election in the history of Lombard took place today, with a heavy vote polled. The election marked the close of a spirited campaign, with three full tickets in the field, all the candidates being representative men of the community, with strong personal followings.

Each of the three parties maintained headquarters, and systematic organization and plentiful publicity marked the pre-election weeks. Mass meetings in various parts of town were of almost nightly occurrence, and interest was kept at high tide all the time.

Another outstanding feature of the campaign has been the deep interest of the women of Lombard, many of whom have opened their homes for political meetings, and many others who have done aggressive work as house-to-house canvassers in the interest of their candidates. Their activity culminated today in one of the largest feminine votes ever polled in Lombard.

The new voting precinct—the fourth—located at 722 South Main street, demonstrated its usefulness today in caring for the heavy Sunday vote, thus relieving the congestion at the polling place in Coleman's store, which for the last few elections had been a source of annoying delay.

Chevrolet March Production Sets New Record Mark

All monthly production records in the history of the Chevrolet Motor Company were broken in March, when the company produced 142,774 cars and trucks. A factory statement explains that this figure was considerably in excess of preliminary production schedules and was made necessary to more fully accommodate an increasing demand for the new car (Chevrolet Six).

This March record compares with 131,467 produced in March of last year and with 124,000 for February of this year. It is noted by nearly 1,000 auto buyers that previous month in the history of the company, which was May, 1925, when output totaled 149,772 units.

In preparation for what promises to be the biggest spring business on record, the manufacturing division is reorganizing on the highest schedule ever undertaken by the company. The company's six-million car operation is speeding toward a new operation with all the haste consistent with precision manufacturing. ## Izaak Walton's To Plant Kaffir Corn For Feeding Birds

Plans for entertaining Bob Linhart famous cowboy and one of the best shots in the country, were discussed at a meeting of the Elmhurst Izaak Walton League Tuesday evening.

Linhart will be the principal speaker at a banquet to be given by the local Izaak Walton League, probably May 7. He will also appear before a local assembly of Boy Scouts and school children. It is to be arranged, involving the movies of western life, his own work, and possibly other examples of his ability.

At the meeting Tuesday evening, 25 Elmhurst members made reservations for the dinner to be given at the national convention of Izaak Waltonians on April 18 in Chicago. Others who wish to attend this gala affair may make their reservations with the president or secretary.

Local Waltonians have arranged to plant three acres of Kaffir corn on a farm west of Elmhurst this summer. The grain will be used for feeding birds next winter.

LACK OF NEEDED TRAFFIC LANES COSTS HUGE SUM

Many Human Lives are Sacrificed Annually Because of the Automobile Congestion

An economic loss of more than $2,000,000 is suffered by the people of the United States annually through the failure to provide adequate traffic facilities, according to the American Motorists' Association, in comparison with the Automobile Club of Illinois, whose figures are estimated to be not less than $2,000,000 annually.

The death loss has increased during the past several years in proportion to the number of automobiles in use, the Association declares. For example, in 1922 when registrations totaled 12,239,000, the number of automobile fatalities numbered 14,000. Last year, when registrations reached 24,194,000, the number of fatalities was 26,000. Statistics estimate that for each fatal accident, twenty-five to thirty persons are injured as compared with approximately 100 persons were injured in 1922 in comparison with nearly 300,000 in 1923.

CONTRACTORS OF COUNTY DINE AT DOWNERS GROVE

Lathers and Plasterers Staged Annual Affair Last Saturday Night

The Lathing and Plastering Contractors club of DuPage county, which has a number of local members, held its annual dinner last Saturday night in Minnet hall of the Masonic temple in Downers Grove.

Plans had been made for one of the biggest affairs of its kind ever held in the county, since the club has the reputation for throwing a real party at these annual affairs, and those who attended were not disappointed.

The evening started with a banquet served by members of Vesta chapter, No. 243, Order of Eastern Star. Following this several visiting dignitaries were introduced by H. M. Long, Downers Grove, president of the club, and then the hall was cleared out and the rest of the evening spent tripping the right fantastic.

Music during the dinner and for the dancing was furnished by Lou Smith's orchestra of Elmhurst. Entertainment was also furnished by the group. Officers of the club for 1923 are: H. M. Long, Downers Grove, president; G. E. Irish, Hinsdale, vice-president; Carl Anderson, Elmhurst, treasurer; Ralph Johnson, Elmhurst, sergeant-at-arms.

Carl Anderson, Ralph Johnson and A. L. Rinkensberger of Elmhurst are members of the executive committee while E. C. Clavin of Lombard is business manager.

Members of the club are as follows: Lathing Contractors—P. J. Wild, Downers Grove; L. H. Edyburn, Maywood; L. A. Harbutt, and A. L. Rinkensberger, Elmhurst; George La Kurth, Hinsdale; Walter Keith, La Grange; George F. Bolter, Chicago; John Schwab, Bensenville; Walter A. Swift and Wm. Youse, Aurora.

The life and work of Gen. Booth was reviewed in an address by Adjutant E. Warren Stanton of the Social Service Department of the Salvation Army in Chicago, who painted an interesting picture of this remarkable personality and of the great Christian organization of mercy, inspiration, and relief which he founded.

Special music was furnished by Corps Cadets, the Misses Eleanor Murphy and Ruth Elmquist, who sang among other hymns the famous Booth hymn "O Boundless Salvation," which the General himself wrote for his army.

Thrift (By Dr. Frank Crane)
It is a common mistake to suppose that thrift means only saving money. Thrift means spending money intelligently as well as saving it. Thrift simply means that you know what you are doing, how much you are spending, what you have spent and what you are going to spend. Every person ought to keep strict account of his income and outgo. It is a matter of habit. When you get used to it, it is as easy as sitting down. Thrift is the road to contentment.

MRS. LEWIS ELLSWORTH INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Mrs. Lewis Ellsworth, wife of the court clerk and recorder of DuPage county, and herself an employe in his office at the courthouse, was painfully injured early Friday morning in an auto collision in Glen Ellyn.

Leaving her home at 628 Pleasant Ave. in Glen Ellyn at about 8:46, she was struck at the Hawthorn street intersection by Julius B. Mallin of Hawthorne street, driving east with two other men in his Dodge sedan. The Dodge struck the right rear bumper of the Ellsworth's Studebaker, and both cars turned completely over. Each driver had failed to see the other on approaching.

All the occupants of the two cars were considerably cut and bruised, but none seriously injured. Mrs. Ellsworth received cuts about the head and arms, and severe bruises, but is recovering nicely. The cars were badly damaged, the rear wheels of the Ellsworth car being torn off.

THE TRUTH ABOUT NEON TUBING

Competitive manufacturers of Neon Tubing have been for some time past busily engaged in patent litigation.

In the meantime, many people interested in buying signs made of Neon tubing have been disturbed and harassed by having the question of patents and lawsuits injected into the talk of Neon salesmen.

This announcement is published solely for the purpose of simplifying and clarifying decision on the part of the man who is considering the purchase of a Neon sign.

The real truth—the actual facts—are herewith set forth so that you may decide your purchase without the element of fear or threat entering into the matter. Statements that it is impossible to build a Neon tube which is not an infringement of adjudicated patents will not bear the light of investigation.

The legal side of the situation need concern you only as it concerns protection of your purchase.

Q. R. S. Neon Tubing is made under our own and French inventions, for which we hold exclusive United States rights.

"Any statement that there is an injunction against the manufacture of Q. R. S. Neon Tubing with your present electrodes is false."

To the sign buyers of this city, we, the Q. R. S. Co., a million dollar corporation, backed by over two decades of fair dealing, say to you that we assume the entire responsibility for everything we manufacture.

We have a legal right to make and sell all the Neon Tubing we desire and our policy of defending the rights of ourselves and our customers is fixed and firm and set.

The sign buyer who will take the trouble to investigate Q. R. S. reputation and finances, will realize that he gains full protection when we assume responsibility and give our written guarantees.

—we make what we firmly believe to be the best Neon tubing available in this country—and are making it under our own patent rights.

—now—we further guarantee and protect the buyers of our Q. R. S. Neon tubing against loss through so called patent infringement.

—you are free to make your own comparisons of Q. R. S. Neon tubing, quality and performance and select on that basis and that alone.

—make the man who tells you otherwise put it in writing—and send the "writing" to us.

FINNEMORE WINS HIGH PRAISE IN ORGAN PROGRAM

Press Critic Finds Much To Delight In the Element Musical Vesper

An organ recital gathered an enthusiastic audience at St. Peter's Episcopal church, Grange, after noon for the eleventh musical vesper. Mr. Finnemore being the soloist.

This is the second time Mr. Finnemore has appeared before his many friends in and about the city as a soloist of organ music, and again he demonstrated an ambitious student, and a musician of attainments as well as of further promise. His program in this particular occasion gave him some opportunity for a display of his ability, both technical and interpretative, and there can be no doubt but that the reputation of the soloist was gained considerably by his Sunday achievement.

The program, following quite orthodox lines, opened with that standard among Bach works, the Fantasia and Fugue in C major which was played by the soloist, and a laudable pertinence it was from the exploiting of the program mood of the Russian composer well-defined articulation of the three-voiced fugue. The Russian composer of Mendelssohn, also one of the standard organ works of that prolific composer, came in for an excellent rendering, the beautiful melody and counterpoint of the Ascending Religious being particularly memorable as was the solemn and beautiful duale of the Allegretto.

The two following groups presented a judicious mixture of old and modern style, to wit the sixteenth century "Vivote" of Padre Martini, that exquisite bit of modern harmonization and musical fantasy in "Up the Sanctuary" by Russell, the strachous "Concert Organ" of that popular American organist, the composer here a delicate bit of Russian melodic and harmonic suggestion from the pen of Rebikov, "Dance des Ombres" and two numbers by that giant among modern organists the Frenchman Phillip Bonomet, the delicate and mystical "Cher de Luce" and the composed and inspired effective "Carpenter's Heroique" in all these Mr. Finnemore showed splendid ability in co-ordinating hands, feet and pedals, and effected in every way pleasing to the ear and surely complimentary to his present status as organist as promising for his future development.

We congratulate Mr. Finnemore upon this recital and assure him of the cordial appreciation of a large musical colony in and about Elmhurst. Assisting at the recital were Misses Quackenbush who did some lovely things with her cello in the Kilmory-Korvack "Hyman" and played as well as in the "Polonaise" by Popper. She is a serious and talented artist and always wins enthusiastic reaction with her performance.—R. M. C.

Legion Auxiliary

In spite of weather conditions a good crowd of members of T. H. D. Unit No. 127 were on hand for the regular business meeting Wednesday evening. Two visitors, both residents of Elmhurst, both members of Forest Park Unit, attended the meeting as guests of Mrs. Mildred McCallum.

The resignation of Mrs. Ada J. Everett, American chairman, was read and accepted, and Mrs. Laurena King was appointed by the chair to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Esther Frett was also appointed to fill a vacancy on the executive board, as chairman of the ways and means committee.

Subscriptions to the National Defense magazine have been paid by the unit and copies will be sent each month to the libraries of both the local high school and the Elmhurst college, in cooperation with the school authorities.

The Auxiliary Sewing Circle will meet Monday, April 16, with Mrs. George Chast, 220 Michigan avenue at one o'clock. Articles for hospital use, such as laundry bags and aprons, kindly help, will be needed.

The award offered by Mrs. Corinne Jackson to the Auxiliary member showing the most tickets for the recent party was given to Mrs. Catherine Dewey.

The following committee served refreshments and helped to make the evening a success socially: Mrs. Ann Mitchell, Mrs. Clara Heitmann, Mrs. Minnie Jones and Mrs. Alma Cook.

The Government Study Class, sponsored jointly by the American Legion Auxiliary and the Elmhurst Woman's Club, was postponed from its usual meeting date to the 18th of April. This class is under the direction of George L. Letts and meets in the Junior high room at Hawthorne school at 8 P. M.

The ladies of the Auxiliary furnished raffles and served the Legion Post at its recent "smoker."

Saturday evening, April 14, marked another successful event for the American Legion Auxiliary. More than 100 represented both the Legion and Auxiliary in the social gathering. The members and all spent a very happy and enjoyable evening playing bridge, 50¢ and 10¢ raffles were given to those who showed their skill at each table and at the conclusion of the event refreshments were served by the ladies in charge. Everyone enjoyed the good coffee made by Mrs. Minnie Jones and donated by Mrs. Chase and Sanborn, Chicago.

A very beautiful cashew-almond was donated by Frank L. Cain and given away. Also a door award of a ton of coal donated by Richmond Coal company. To these and other prizes which by this means to express his profoundest thanks.

George A. Amund rendered several splendid solos, all of which were highly appreciated and enjoyed by all present. We anticipate with pleasure having Mr. Amund favor us with additional solos at our future occasions.

The entire event was a happy one due to the splendid co-operation and harmony extended by all of the committee. The first chairman, Mrs. E. E. Beaman, second, Mrs. M. J. Grady and also for the privilege of being a party to those in charge.

Every one was expecting great things of the new Administration. They have every right to believe that the new President will give their problems a prompt and more intelligent viewpoint than any chief executive of this generation.

"Every cent that can be saved between the farmer and the intake door of the retailer," wrote Herbert Hoover in an article in Farm and Forestry eight years ago, "means increased returns to the farmer."

The editor who published that article from Hoover's pen in 1921 has been going over the things that Hoover said at that time, and finds them all sound agricultural doctrine at the present time. "It is the talk of eliminating the middleman," he says, "but the present partnership between those who provide food and those who distribute it is shadowy and unstable."

Most farmers will grant that inasmuch as the job of provisioning the world is a shared job, the rewards for doing the job must be divided. But when the consumer's dollar comes slipping back to the farmer looking like even less than the proverbial they can't help but wonder how Hoover's viewpoint—their own—will be treated. They don't know where all the rest of the money goes, and whether all the expenditure which consumed it were efficient and wise.

Never before in the nation's history have the waste motion, the high costs and the frantic competition of the middleman exerted as heavy a drain in agriculture as they do today. That is Hoover's problem, and one which he is particularly qualified to meet fairly and squarely.

THE CARELESS LETTER WRITERS

(Editorial in St. Paul Pioneer Press)

The American public was 8.5 per cent less careless or inattentive about 1927. Even so, the annual report of Postmaster General New shows that 23,648,044 letters went to the dead letter office in 1927.

Of course not all of these letters went astray because of carelessness or illiteracy of addressing. In many cases misdirection of mail is unavoidable because addresses have moved, or have been changed.

GOOD THOUGHTS FOR GOOD PEOPLE

When the rich young ruler came to Jesus seeking eternal life, he was apparently not yet willing to forsake all for Christ, yet Jesus looked on him and loved him not blaming and condemning him, but recognizing the need for greater righteousness and charity.

County May Improve Fifty-fifth Street

Improvement of Fifty-fifth street, an east and west road in the southern part of DuPage county, is contemplated by the county highway department for 1929. This movement, announced recently to the village boards of Clarendon Hills and Westmont is of interest since it would provide a new traffic route from Hinsdale to Downers Grove. Fifty-fifth street extends from Archer avenue, Summit to Lake Michigan, and suburban leaders have often proposed that the street be extended west to Mannheim road, south of La Grange.

REMY WOULD BUILD ELECTRIC RAILWAY THROUGH ACROSS SAHARA SANDS

Morocco.—A deep and profound electric railway line across the Sahara desert, linking North Africa with North America and the Panama Canal, is proposed by Paul Remy, well known French engineer, as the only feasible method of circumventing the peril of shifting desert sands.

The constantly changing surface contour of the desert, and the instability of the light sand for a road and the possibility of building any sort of roadway or railway on its surface. If the plan is carried out it will permit a safe, speedy journey through the desert in a cool subterranean tube.
